

Finodis is a leading financial services provider offering end-to-end solutions for the entire financial supply chain, including corporate credit management (accounts receivable), accounts payable services, factoring or commercial finance back-office administration, and paper/electronic invoicing services.

Finodis is a joint-venture back-office utility between Fortis Commercial Finance (FCF) and Hewlett Packard (HP). The strengths of both shareholders have been combined: FCF leveraged its year-long experience in commercial finance and credit management, while HP provides know-how concerning business processes and IT-solutions.

Finodis is incorporated as a limited company in The Netherlands and can deliver services, through its shareholder Fortis Commercial Finance (FCF), in 13 countries: The Netherlands, Belgium, France, Germany, United Kingdom, Luxemburg, Italy, Poland, Denmark, Sweden, Spain, Turkey and Hong Kong. Finodis employs approximately 210 FTEs, with headquarters in 's-Hertogenbosch, The Netherlands.
